

Tierra de los Andes

TOUR OPERADOR

EXPERIENCIAS HUMANAS RESPONSABLES

Calle Tunquén 11 Urb. Kennedy A. - Quito - Perú

994 652 969 / (+51) 993 347 277

tierradeandes@peru.com

www.tierradeandes.com

Móvil: 993 3677-61

Iradicinal

FAMILY TOUR TO PERU

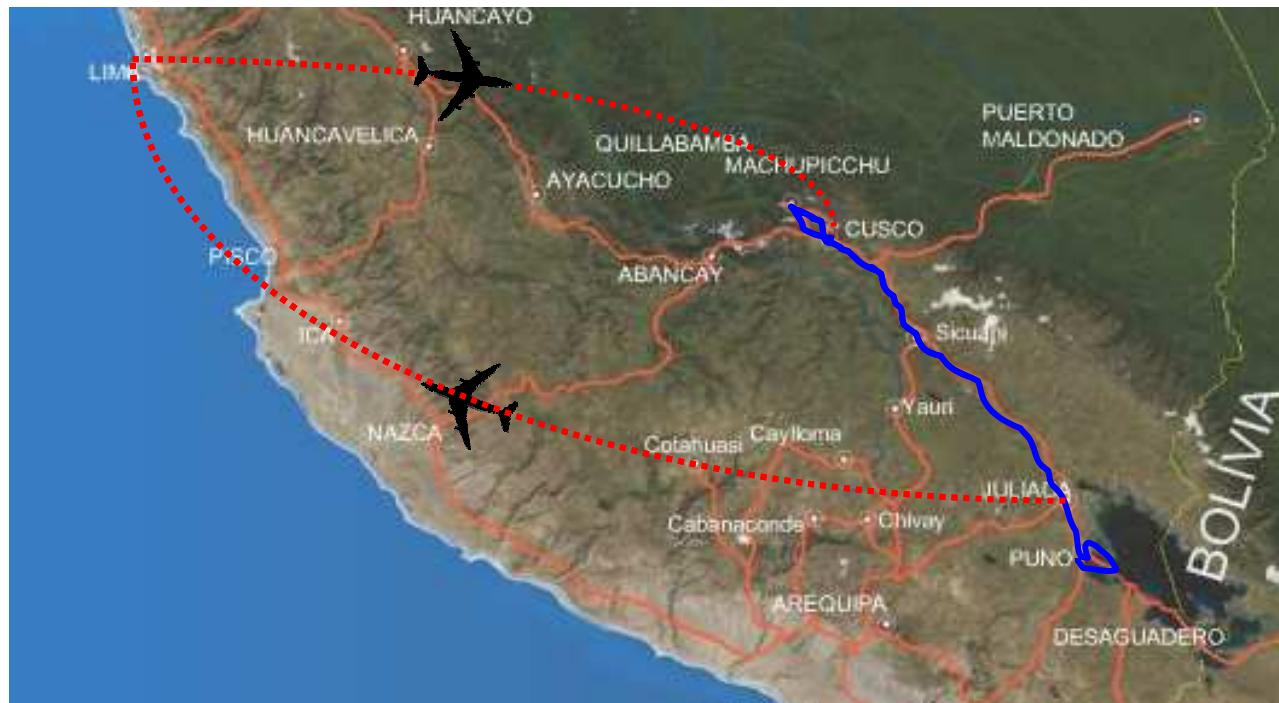

This trip is designed for children whose age is minimum 8 years. We have studied the route and also we have designed special activities for them. In the Sacred Valley of the Incas you will do an easy walk of two days spending a night in tents. The following days, you will have hiking, mountain biking and rafting activities in Ollantaytambo, before arriving to visit the lost city of the Incas: Machu Picchu. It ends with an excursion on Titicaca Lake with sailing on a boat to go fishing in the islands of Taquile and Uros. It will be an unforgettable adventure!

Length: 15 days

Starting from : Adult 2000 USD
Child 1650 USD

STRENGTHS :

- A trip especially designed for families
- Variety of activities to discover and know Peru
- Possibility to change or add activities according to the wishes of each family
- Spending nights with local families to share their daily lives

D1 SPAIN - LIMA

Reception by our staff upon arrival to Lima International Airport and transfer to Hotel.

Assistance: company staff

Transportation: private car

Accommodation in 3 * Hotel

Meals on your own

D2 LIMA - CUSCO (3350 M)

Transfer to the airport for your flight from Lima to Cusco reception and transfer to your hotel. The rest of the morning will be at leisure to acclimatize to the altitude and rest. In the afternoon, you will visit the capital of the Incas, the Plaza de Armas, the cathedral and the monastery of Santo Domingo where the famous Temple of the Sun or Koricancha is located.

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation: Private minibus.

Accommodation in 3 * Hotel

Breakfast included.

D3 CUSCO

This day will be an adventure visiting the four important archaeological sites near Cusco on horseback, you will go from ENACO where our adventure begins, you will ride towards the community of Pumamarka, a beautiful scenery will be the perfect starting point for your excursion, you will get to your first destination Tambomachay the archaeological remains of one of the major sacred sites of the Incas. After visiting this place you will go to Puca Pucara, an ancient fortress that guards the entrance to the capital and therefore offers a splendid view over the valley and surrounding peaks. The third site is Qenqo, an important sanctuary that has many altars of sacrifice. The buildings are constructed with limestone. Finally, you will arrive to Sacsayhuaman which is located just above the city of Cusco. Its enormous carved stones joined with surprising accuracy form the outer walls. After this adventure you will ride back to the city of Cusco. The afternoon will be free for personal activities.

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation: private minibus to ENACO, Qenqo and horses to ride back to Cusco

Accommodation in 3 * hotel

Breakfast and lunch (box lunch) included

D4 PATABAMBA WALK (3900 M) - HUCHUY QOSQO (3600 M)

Today our activities begin with a transfer to the community of Patabamba for approximately 1:30 hours. This is the "Observatory of the Sacred Valley of the Incas" from this place you will begin your walk along a path leading to the small town of Sihuas. Then you will go to Pukamarka pass (4.175 m) which overlooks the community of the same name. Enjoy the magnificent views of the Urubamba mountain range and the Sacred Valley. Continue to the Puma Punku Canyon, before changing the path to a restored ancient Inca trail.

This road leads to the mysterious Inca Citadel of Huchuy Qosqo, with its magnificent terraces, buildings of stone and adobe. Here you will camp for the night. There will be games and activities for children and adults.

5 hours walk, difference in altitude : +350m / -400m

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation: private minibus to Patabamba

Overnight at local family houses

Breakfast, lunch and dinner included

D5 HUCHUY QOSQO - PIURAY – CHINCHERO (3780 M)

Our second day trek starts leaving the archaeological remains of Huchuyqosqo to climb on a fascinating walk into the Huallatas pass (4,300 m), it offers a breathtaking view of the Urubamba mountain range, the snow capped mountain of San Juan which is 5,300 m height and the Vilcanota mountain range, with the highest snow capped mountain of Ausangate(6378 meters). Then descend to Piuray lake before we continue to Chincher.

6 hours of walking, difference in altitude : +700m / -520m

English speaking guide (private tour).

Overnight at local family houses

Breakfast, lunch and dinner included

D6 CHINCHERO - MARAS (3000 M) - URUBAMBA (2800 M)

This day is a mixture of exciting activities that will begin with the visit to the village of Chincher , famous for its textile art: they express their art making belts, beautiful ponchos, coats. You will visit the town that was built in the ancient Inca times as an administrative center, its streets, its main square, agricultural terraces and "huacas", sacred places where the Incas performed rituals. Our journey continues this time by bicycle to the salt mines of Maras . Its origin dates back to Inca times and it is still operated by hand by the inhabitants of the region. There are over 3,500 ponds, fed by the heat flow from a source of salt in high concentrations. You will end your tour with the descent to the Urubamba River "and the small town of Tarabamba where our bus will be waiting to take you to Urubamba.

4 hours on a bicycle

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation: bicycle Chincher - Tarabamba (Difficulty: Easy), private minibus to Urubamba

Accommodation in 3 * hotel

Breakfast and lunch included

D7 URUBAMBA - OLLANTAYTAMBO (2750 M) - AGUAS CALIENTES (2040 M)

This part is an adventure, you will go rafting down the Urubamba River to the town of Ollantaytambo, a fortress built to guard the entrance to this part of the valley and protect it from enemies of the jungle. You will stroll through the streets of the town that has preserved traces of the ancient military , religious and cultural center. Later in the afternoon you will take the train to the town of Aguas Calientes, which is located at the bottom of Machu Picchu. Here you will spend the night.

English speaking guide (private tour).

Transportation: private minibus

Overnight at 3* hotel

Breakfast and lunch included

D8 AGUAS CALIENTES - MACHU PICCHU (2450 M) - OLLANTAYTAMBO (2700 M)

This day will start with a fascinating morning. You will take a bus to the famous Machu Picchu citadel, located on the edge of the mountain of the same name. You will visit this jewel of Inca architecture, located in a lush tropical vegetation area. You will visit the different neighborhoods, squares, royal houses, large agricultural areas, trails and observatories. After the tour, you will have free time to walk to the Sungate called "Intipunku," which is at 2,700 m. This place offers the classic panoramic view of Machupicchu. In the evening you will return to the village of Aguas Calientes to take the train back to Ollantaytambo and then moving on to Urubamba where you will spend the night.

Local bilingual private guide

Transportation: collective bus from Aguas Calientes - Machupicchu - Aguas Calientes

Train from Machu Picchu - Ollantaytambo (No guide) private minibus Ollantaytambo - Urubamba

Accommodation in 3 * hotel

Breakfast included

D9 OLLANTAYTAMBO - PISAQ - CUSCO

In the morning you will go to the village of Pisac, 1 hour drive approximately where you will visit the impressive archaeological site of Pisac, located at 3400 meters, with terraces, fountains, neighborhoods, observatories and the largest cemetery in the area (about 10,000 people were buried there). After you will visit the traditional market of Pisac. Return to Cuzco.

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation: private minibus to Cusco

Accommodation in 3 * hotel

Breakfast included

D10 CUSCO - LLACHON (3825 M)

This day you will travel to the Titicaca Lake, the highest navigable lake in the world, it will be a wonderful experience. This route will be along the fertile valley of Cusco with its contrasting landscapes of color and brightness. En route, you will visit the small village of Andahuaylillas, famous for its colonial church known as the "Sistine Chapel of South America". Back on the route you will stop at the archaeological remains of Racchi "Wiracocha Temple" built in homage to the god of the Inca Viracocha, the Creator of the Universe. It is a unique complex of its kind, you will continue the trip to reach La Raya (4.338 m) it is the entrance to the Altiplano. After a couple of hours, you will arrive to the city of Juliaca (3,900 m), the commercial capital and the largest market of alpaca in the Altiplano. You will continue towards Capachica Peninsula. You will arrive to Llachon, located in the famous and legendary Titicaca Lake, which covers over 10,000 square km. People from the community will welcome you and they will be your hosts in this part of the trip.

English speaking guide

Transportation: Tourist bus to Juliaca (7h), and private minibus to Llachon.

Overnight in local family house.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

D11 LLACHON (3850 M)

You will have this day to explore the peninsula of Llachon. You will make a short walk along the shores of Titicaca Lake. You will share some activities with the families.

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation: Private local boat.

Overnight at local family houses

Breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

D12 LLACHON - TAQUILE (3900 M) - PUNO (3812 M)

You will take a boat to travel to the island of Taquile, the island is covered with terraced fields constructed following the traditions of the Incas, the people live in the traditional way with a kind of Inca communism, there is private property but also there is collective work, about 300 people work in a regular day for them and other days for the community. The community has a self-sustaining economy and they still live on Inca principles "Do not steal, do not lie, Do not be lazy". The top of the island has beautiful views of the lake, the bay of Puno, Bolivia (Cordillera Real), and the Altiplano, it will be a reward for the efforts you make to get there. Return to Puno in the afternoon.

English speaking guide (private tour)

Transportation : Private local boat to Puno

Overnight at 3 * hotel

Breakfast and lunch included

D13 PUNO - JULIACA - LIMA (150M)

Depart from Puno to Juliaca. En route, visit the funeral towers of Sillustani. Once in Juliaca, You will head to the airport for your flight to Lima. Overnight at hotel. Afternoon free to explore the Peruvian capital.

Assistance by our staff in Puno and Lima

Transportation: private car Juliaca (1 hour) flight (No guide).

Accommodation in 3 * Hotel.

Breakfast included.

D14 LIMA - HOME

Our representative will transfer you to the airport in Lima for your international flight.

Assistance by our staff in Lima

Transportation: private car for Lima flight

Breakfast included.

D15 HOME ARRIVAL

THE PRICE INCLUDES

- Accommodation in 3  and 2  hotel as described in the program.
- Meals included as mentioned in the program
- Private and collective land transportation.
- Assistance at airports
- Local guide in Machu Picchu
- English speaking guide throughout the tour
- Private guided tours
- Games in some sections of the trip such as Lake Titicaca.
- Domestic flights: Lima - Cusco and Juliaca – Lima
- Admission fees to National parks, historical places, museums, churches

THE PRICE DOES NOT INCLUDE

- International Flights
- Excursions mentioned in the program as an option.
- Insurances.
- Meals not mentioned in the program.
- Beverages.